MONIGHAN HELD FOR GRAND JURY; BAIL REFUSED

Suspect in Fur Robbery Case Denies Crime, Is Taken to Uniontown.

MRS. SEAMAN DISCHARGED

No Evidence Found to Connect Local Woman With Theft of Thousands of Dollars Worth of Merchandise From Store of Wright-Metzler Company.

Given a preliminary hearing before Alderman Frank O'Connor, Jr., on the West Side last evening, George F.
Monaghan, charged with the larceny of several thousands of dollars worth of furs from the Wright-Metzler company of this city, and suspected of being involved in a number of others in other places, was held for court without bail and committed to jail.

Monaghan, against whom information was made by F. W. Wright, president of the Wright-Metzler company, denied that he actually robbed the store, but admitted receiving the furs. He says two men, whose names he claims he does not know, did the work. The police do not believe this story.

Monaghan was given a hearing shortly after his arrival here from Pittsburg where he was taken Monday night for examination. City Detective McGuire of Pittsburg and J. J.
Tompek, a member of the state constitutional guard, brought him here. Mrs. A.
L. Seaman, arrested in Pittsburg Monday night on suspicion of complicity, was brought here with Moni-ghan. She was not connected with the robbery and was discharged.

Mrs. Seaman refused to answer questions of A. A. Steinweg, head of the Imperial stores at Cumberland, Md., which were also robbed of several thousand dollars worth of fur.
Mr. Steinweg went to Pittsburg this morning to endeavor to get a line on his property which he believes Moni-ghan stole and disposed of in that city.

The Cumberland merchant secured a search warrant to go through the Seaman home, where Monaghan was a boarder, to look for his property. He found nothing, however.

Attorney John Dugan was retained by Monaghan to defend him.
Alderman Frank O'Connor said that he would endeavor to get a line on his property which he believes Moni-ghan stole and disposed of in that city.

RUMOR OF SLIGO SALE DENIED BY MANAGED DUFFY

Plant Closed Because of General Condition in Industry Throughout Country; Not to Resume Soon.

Remedy current that the mill of the Sligo Iron & Steel company, which plant has been located here for many years, working off and on, is to be discontinued, and then sold, was this morning denied by General Manager Duffy. Mr. Duffy said, however, that he did not doubt the mill would be sold if there were a buyer for it.

A story heard here was that the machinery of the mill was to be shipped to other parts and that the plant itself would be sold to an automobile company. Mr. Duffy said he knew nothing of this and believed the report to be erroneous. He said that at present Sligo, like many other mills throughout the country, was closed, on account of general conditions and the tightness of money. He was sure, he said, that the mill would be run again for at least two months.

A number of the mill force have returned here, and about the city. Others have moved away.
Sligo has been running, somewhat more regularly in the past few years than for some time. The plant operated day and night for a long time and at one period never slowed up on account of the coal shortage. There is still a big pile of coal lying unused in the yards. A car was loaded this week with some material which had previously turned out.

STEEL MILLS CLOSING

Independents at Youngstown Will Be Idle Remainder of Year.

By Associated Press.
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Dec. 16.—Heads of the independent steel plants have indicated today that the mills will be practically idle from the end of this week until the first of the year, owing to lack of orders. The contemplated suspension will affect about 20,000 workers. Blast furnaces and other units will be kept going but the main departments are expected to be idle.

United States Steel Corporation mills are expected to continue at their present rate of about 80 per cent production.

SEVEREST EARTH TREMOR IN TWO YEARS RECORDED TODAY IN WASHINGTON AND CHICAGO

PROSECUTION OF DRAFT EVADERS CALLED FIASCO

"Only Promises" By War Department, Service Men Tell House Committee.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Charges that the War Department is taking no action looking to the prosecution of draft evaders and deserters were filed with the House Judiciary committee today by representatives of service men's organizations. The committee is considering a bill to extend the statute of limitation from three to six years for prosecution of violators of the selective service act.
William G. Murdock, department adjutant of The American Legion for Pennsylvania, declared the War Department has "done nothing but promise prosecution" of more than 150,000 draft evaders and deserters under regulations. There are also charges that the Department of Justice was making little progress in dealing with another 150,000 men whom they claim had violated the service act but were punishable under military statutes rather than military law.

Mr. Murdock submitted a letter signed by Adjutant General Harrie to former President Marshall General Crowder in which he said the War Department had the record of 489,000 deserters falling under military regulations. Of these, the letter said, 163,738 had been dealt with under military regulations proper to February 23, 1919. There remained, however, 173,911 individual cases of which the War Department had made no disposition before September 1, last, according to the letter.

Chairman Volstead of the committee said he believed the War Department should be called upon for information as to disposition of the cases. The committee left the matter in the chairman's hands and said he expected to write to Secretary Baker.

TWO BURNED TO DEATH $10,000 PROPERTY LOSS IN FIRE AT AMBRIDGE

One of Dead Men Is Blown Through Building; Paint Belling Over Starts Blaze.

By Associated Press.
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 16.—Two men were burned to death and two others injured today when fire, followed by a number of explosions of oil and paint, destroyed the paint shop of the H. H.
Robertson company's plant at Ambridge.

The fire, which is believed to have been caused when a pot of paint boiled over, also damaged the machine shop of the company.

David Dickson, 50 years old, one of the dead men, was blown through the building. Stanley Zell, the other, died in a hospital at Rochester. The property damage is estimated at $10,000.

ATTENDANCE FALLS OFF

Diseases Among Children Cause of Slump in City Schools.

The attendance record in the Connellsville schools fell off last month, dropping from 95.02 per cent for October to 93.75 per cent. The slump was mostly due to an epidemic of mumps and chicken-pox in the lower grades.

In the first grade at the Crawford School on the West Side a percentage of only 82 was attained. Good results in other grades, however, brought this figure up and the drop in percentage only amounts to 1.37.

There was a better attendance in the high school.
In the entire city there were 2,802 students, a loss of 100 from October.
Out of a possible 55,483 school days the students attended 52,021.

There were 353 tardy marks by 287 persons, out of a possible 104,042.
Percentage of attendance which totalled 94.55, those of non-compulsory age 91.21.

Estimate of Distance Around 3,000 Miles, West-East Direction.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—An unusually severe shock, estimated to be 2,800 miles in a westerly direction from Washington, was recorded today on the seismograph at Georgetown university. The recording of the shock began at 7:31. The maximum intensity was reached at 8:07 and still was in progress at 9:50. This disturbance was described by Rev.
Francis A. Torndorf, director of observatory, as the worst recorded here in two years.

Further Torndorf said the estimate of distance was difficult to calculate from the early portion of the record of the shock. The distance of 2,800 miles from Washington, estimated by Father Torndorf, would indicate the location to be in the United States near the Pacific coast, or to the west, or in the vicinity of the Azores, if to the east.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—An earthquake shock, the severest recorded in two years, is being recorded on the seismograph at the University of Chicago.
The center of the disturbance was estimated to be 3,000 miles from Chicago.

ty Not Complete, Chairman Areford Says.

ville; Believed Final Report Will Show Material Increase in County.

Carl S. Areford, chairman of the Fourth Annual Red Cross Roll Call, made the following report on the results of the Roll Call in Fayette county. This report, however, is not final, as a number of districts have made no report and some are not complete.

Mr. Areford expressed himself as being well pleased with the result, considering the weather conditions and the fact that very little time was had for preliminary preparation. The report shows that the majority of district chairmen thoroughly covered their territory. The county chairman expects that when all reports are in the total in memberships and money will be considerably increased.

HEALTH AUTHORITIES LOOK TO SCHOOL VACATION TO CHECK SCARLET FEVER IN CITY

Connellsville Has Thus Far Escaped Epidemic of Disease.

OTHERS LESS FORTUNATE

Connellsville, although seemingly undergoing an epidemic of scarlet fever, is really escaping, or has so far escaped the real scourge of the disease. Health Officer George Hotzel said today that five cases of that disease had been reported to him this week and about four were turned in last week. He added, however, that "the week is not yet over."

One additional case was reported this morning. In most instances the attacks are very light. This is the reason for the spread of it, the authorities believe, as children who are afflicted do not feel the effects of it sufficiently to keep them from school.
As the Christmas holidays begin on Monday, it is believed any further spread will be checked.

Untown had a severe epidemic of the disease among school children and Greenburg was also hit hard. Scottsdale had a touch and this city seems to be the last.

Chicken and chicken-pox were the chief causes of absence from school last month. On Monday of this week there were 82 students out of their classes on account of contagious diseases. Not all these were ill themselves, but were prevented from attending their classes on account of the quarantine regulations.

FORMER ASSOCIATES OF W. H. BROWN GIVE PORTRAIT TO LODGE

Presentation an Interesting Eventing in the Masonic Temple Last Evening, Attended by Many Masons.

The presentation of a striking life-like portrait of William H. Brown, a former worshipful master of King Solomon Lodge No. 346, Free and Accepted Masons, was the occasion of an interesting and impressive function in the lodge rooms in the Masonic Temple Wednesday evening.

The portrait, which is the work of C. S. Kilpatrick, a former Connellsville and now prominent as an artist in New York, was the gift of E. C.
Higbee and W. D. McGinnis, both of whom were associates of Mr. Brown, the former as a law partner and the latter in business undertakings. Dr.
Harry J. Ball of Dawson, one of the most prominent members of the Masonic fraternity in this section of the state, made the address of presentation. The acceptance was by E. T.
Norton. Following the exercises of presentation dinner was served to the members and guests who were present to the number of more than 100, including prominent Masons from Uniontown, Dawson and elsewhere.

Mr. Brown was among the most prominent public-spirited citizens of Connellsville at the time of his death, while still a young man, in August, 1908. He was a member of the law firm of Sterling, Higbee & Brown, vice president and director of the Citizens National bank and member of the school board. He took an active part in all matters of public interest and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of every citizen of the community.

The portrait of Mr. Brown is one of a number of works of art Mr. Kilpatrick has contributed to the homes and institutions of his home town.
He designed the statue of Colonel William Crawford which adorns the Carnegie library grounds and painted portraits of Mr. and Mrs. John D.
Frisbee, Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell Marlatta, Joseph Seisson, J. R. Stauffer and others.

Mr. Stensler, pastor of the Reformed church of Mount Pleasant, being the officiating minister. The wedding was a quiet one, witnessed by only the members of the immediate families of the contracting parties.

Mr. Coughenour is one of the well-known and accomplished young ladies of Mount Pleasant and the bridegroom, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Coughenour of Riverport, was formerly a clerk in the county commissioner's office at Greensburg, and was one of the early volunteers in the World War, going overseas in October, 1917, being attached to the 5th Aero Squadron, First Pursuit, in which were such notable officers as service as Quentin Roosevelt, Eddie Rickenbacker and Major Basil L. Barry. He was in several major operations and talked to Roosevelt a short time before that youth lost his life, and also saw Lufbery in his final battle over their field, when a great ace was finally brought to earth by a German plane. Next time you are in a gathering stration of intelligence from every point of view. The color is rosy, the skin is clear and smooth, the pores are small and open, the powder does not show on the skin, vigorous skin.

"Tares and the Wheat"; evening, 7

Tree Prices Cut.

Local merchants have announced the prices for Christmas trees much lower this year than last. A choice Christmas tree may be bought for 75 cents and 85 cents, while the largest in stock may be sold for $1.50. These prices are much lower than last year and the shipment of trees received is a far superior quality than that had for several years.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Richard McGinnis of South Connecticut is visiting friends here.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

The most effective, this old home-made remedy has no equal.
Easy and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy.
Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs.
Put in a pint bottle, put 2 1/2 ounces of syrup in it, make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint serves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more effective, effective remedy. It cures perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tickling cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pine is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.
To avoid disappointment, ask your druggists for "2 1/2 ounces of Pine" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pine Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Clarified Classics

"Rome," chirps Juliet, "if you haven't got matrimonial intentions, then take your big foot off me."

The PITTSBURG DISPATCH Has a Jolly New Feature for You In Its Next Sunday Issue

Have you not wished time and again that you knew the story of some well-known story?

Have you ever been half-ashamed to admit that you never read some well-known book—a romance, a play, or a poem—and yet dreaded to get it out and wade through it?

This is no unusual state to get into—it's quite common with all of us.

A happy event now makes it possible for all to leave off wishing—the one, or shirking the other of these conditions.

A clever young woman writer, Anne Jordan, has prepared the way for your indulgence in the masterpieces of literature, and to do it in the most entertaining and enjoyable fashion.

You will want to read the

CLARIFIED CLASSICS

This is a series of re-told tales—vaudeville versions of the greatest stories of all times by the author of the well-known "Vivid Vamps of History."

In the Clarified Classics, Anne Jordan brings to the highest point of perfection her inimitably unique, slangy, satiric style of characterization.

The first article in this extraordinary feature series appears

NEXT SUNDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1920 with a re-told tale of Shakespeare's great love tragedy,

ROMEO and JULIET

This article will be followed on succeeding Sundays by "The Three Musketeers" of Alexandre Dumas, Pere, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" of Harriet Beecher Stowe, "Don Quixote" of Miguel de Cervantes, with burlesque versions of the classic romances by Sir Walter Scott, the famous tales that Charles Dickens told, and a host of others —really, all the one-time "best sellers" of history.

The Clarified Classics, taken by themselves as they appear each Sunday, or in group, are a veritable treat, and the wise Sunday newspaper buyer will, no matter what his customary preference, SPECIF-ICALLY ask for

Taking Up Chess at Age of Three, Polish Prodigy of Eight, Easily Leading Masters of Game

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Little Samuel Lleschewski, Polish chess wonder of eight and one-half years, who has defeated the most formidable masters of the checkered square wherever the game is played in Europe, and who is fulfilling a two months' engagement demonstrating his skill to American experts, has been in "training quarters" in the country near New York most of the time since he arrived in this country.

In clearing his intellectual decks for action, young Samuel does everything else within his juvenile capacity except play chess. Thus he is able to appear fresh and with an unburdened brain when called upon to match tactics with his opponents, whom he habitually takes on 15 to 30 at a time.

Young Samuel, away from a chess board to perform on which has been almost an obsession with him since the age of three, is a very normal sort of little boy, rather shy and backward with grown-ups, but with a taste for diversion out-of-doors which would have entitled him to a place of honor among the associates of Tom Sawyer.

"Ruck" Finn and the rest of the "gang," he has been an American and a contemporary of that noted society. One of his favorite diversions since coming to America has been in learning to drive a new automobile acquired for his use.

According to Samuel's father, who is a player noted for his skill in Polish chess circles, the boy first showed aptitude for the game at the age of three when he was taught the various moves of the chessman. After playing through only a few games the boy acquired such skill that his father was no longer any match for him.

Thereafter his skill and fame increased apace as, one by one, he met and overcame the most formidable players of his native land and later of the entire continent.

During the war the youngster is said to have provided many an evening's amusement for German officers at the expense of their fellows who were humiliated by the stripping in innumerable games at army headquarters.

Speculation on the source of the boy's skill has brought most of those interested in him to certain knowledge on the subject. He has a prodigious memory and delights in gleaning at a board on which the men are arranged as in a game partly played, and then going back one, two or three years in his experience and telling the occasion and circumstances of his previous acquaintance with the problem presented. After recalling the time and place of the game as well as the person with whom he played it, the youngster duplicates it, play by play, from the opening to the checkmate as it was played originally.

SMITHFIELD, Dec. 15.—Dr. E. T. Hegerman will be the next attraction in the community course and will be in the Presbyterian church Thursday evening, December 16.

The borough schools will reconvene Monday, December 27.

Ann Walters of Bowwood was in the borough Monday when he made application for license to operate a motor driven vehicle. He is the third in that family to take out a license. His two brothers, Cleveland and Jeff, had formerly made application. All three of them served overseas in the World War, one of them being severely wounded in one of the engagements in France. There are three other boys in the family old enough to operate an automobile and will be applying for licenses of that privilege before long.

Gallatin Lodge, No. 515, L. O. G. F., is revising its by-laws to make them conform to present day conditions which have increased the cost of maintenance of the lodge. The changes are being made and an increase in the weekly dues of each member from $1.00 to $1.50 is being considered. The first trial of the new by-laws will be held on the 20th of the month. The weekly dues of a member will be $4.50 instead of $3.50. The amendments will be submitted to the lodge Saturday night for approval.

John Moser has gone to Miami, Fla., to spend the winter, and where he hopes to escape the quinsy of which he had frequent attacks here. He made the trip on a motorcycle, riding eight days to reach his destination.

E. L. Downey, since the death of his son, Clark C. Downey, has transferred his son's interest in their business to Mrs. Martha Downey, his son's wife. They are operating the automobile repair and accessories. They have a large garage on the corner of Main and Liberty streets, and are doing a successful business.

The wagon mines, with but few exceptions have closed down, partly on account of bad roads and partly for lack of orders and a decline in price of their product.

Bread in this market is gradually coming down. In the past few months it has dropped from 18 to 12 cents a loaf, but a loaf of bread is a loaf of bread, regardless of the size of the loaf. There are three different bakeries selling their product in the borough, and notwithstanding the loss

"Hypo-Cod Is Wonderful Medicine for Giving a Man New Pop."

"I suffered from indigestion and loss of appetite and I got so I could hardly stand to look at food without being nauseated. My nerves were on edge and I surely was on the down grade, when I started taking Earle's Hypo-Cod. It is wonderful medicine. I soon got back my appetite. Began gaining in weight and strength and sleep good every night. It is exactly what a person needs. It troubled with indigestion, nervous, and general system. It builds you right up to vigorous health according to my experience with it," declared Paul Bonbrout, R. D. No. 1, Johnstown, Pa.

Instead of attempting to do a full day's work with the system in a depleted, nervous, weakened condition—Drop in at the drug store like thousands of others are doing and put your system into vigorous, robust shape again.

Earle's Hypo-Cod is said to be the most modern and powerful reconstructive tonic made by chemists, druggists and experts. Thousands of users endorse it. Each bottle bears the name of the nationally known Earle Chemical Co., which assures you of quality and full strength. Read the formula on a bottle at your druggist today. Take home a bottle.

Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by all good druggists and the leading druggists in all nearby towns.—Adv.

CHAPTER V.

I Learn the Language.

As I reached the doorway of our building a strange surprise awaited me. A warrior approached, bearing the arms, ornaments and full accoutrements of his kind. These he presented to me with a few unintelligible words and a bearing at once respectful and menacing.

Later Sola, with the aid of several of the other women, remodeled the trappings to fit my lesser proportions, and after they completed the work I went about garbed in all the pomp of war.

The training of myself and the young Martians was conducted solely by the women, who not only attend to the education of the young in the arts of individual defense and offense, but are also the artisans who produce every manufactured article wrought by the green Martians. In time of actual warfare they form a part of the reserves, and when the necessity arises fight with even greater intelligence and ferocity than the men. The men are trained in the higher branches of the art of war; in strategy and the maneuvering of large bodies of troops. They make the laws as they are needed; a new law for each emergency. Customs have been handed down by ages of repetition, but the punishment for ignoring a custom is a matter for individual treatment by a jury of the culprit's peers, and I may say that justice seldom misses fire, but seems rather to rule in inverse ratio to the ascendancy of law. In one respect at least the Martians are a happy people; they have no lawyers.

I did not see the prisoner again for several days subsequent to our first encounter, and then only to catch a fleeting glimpse of her as she was being conducted to the great audience chamber where I had my first meeting with Lorquas Ptomel.

I had observed on the two occasions when I had seen her that the prisoner exchanged words with her guards, and this convinced me that they spoke, or at least could make themselves understood by a common language. With this added incentive I nearly drove Sola distracted by my importunities to hasten on my education, and within a few more days I had mastered the Martian tongue sufficiently well to enable me to carry on a passable conversation and to fully understand practically all that I heard.

At this time our sleeping quarters were occupied by three or four females and a couple of the recently hatched young. Besides Sola and her faithful ward, myself, and Woola the hound, after they had retired for the night it was customary for the adults to carry on a desultory conversation for a short time before lapsing into sleep, and now that I could understand their language I was always a keen listener, although I never proffered any remarks myself.

On the night following the prisoner's visit to the audience chamber the conversation finally fell upon this subject, and I was all ears on the instant.

Sarkoja, one of the older women who shared our domicile, had been present at the audience as one of the captive's guards, and it was toward her the questioners turned.

"When," asked one of the women, "will we enjoy the death throes of the Red One, or does Lorquas Ptomel, intend holding her for ransom?"

"They have decided to carry her with us back to Zark, and exhibit her last agonies at the great games before Tol Hajas," replied Sarkoja.

"What will be the manner of her going out?" inquired Sola. "She is very small and very beautiful; I had hoped that they would hold her for ransom."

One thing this episode accomplished was to assure me of Sola's friendliness toward the poor girl, and also to convince me that I had been extremely fortunate in falling into her hands rather than those of some of the other females. I knew that she was fond of me, and now that her remarks showed that she hated cruelty and barbarity I was confident that I could depend upon her to aid me and the girl captive to escape, provided at once. As such a thing was within the range of possibilities.

Early the next morning I was astir. Considerable freedom was allowed me. Sola had informed me that so long as I did not attempt to leave the city I was free to go and come as I pleased. She had warned me, however, against venturing forth unarmed, as this city, like all other deserted metropolises of an ancient Martian civilization, was peopled by the great white apes of my second day's adventure.

On this morning I had chosen a new street to explore when suddenly I found myself at the limits of the city. I intended to explore the country before me, until like the pioneer stock from which I sprang, to view what the land scape beyond the encircling hills might disclose from the summits which shut out my view.

As I approached the boundary line Woola ran anxiously before me, and thrust his body against my legs. His expression was pleading rather than ferocious, nor did he bare his great tusks or utter his fearful guttural warnings. Devoid of the friendship and companionship of my kind, I had developed considerable affection for Woola and Sola, for the normal earthly man must have some outlet for his natural affections, and so I decided upon an appeal to a like instinct in this great brute, sure that I would not be disappointed.

I had never petted nor fondled him, but now I sat upon the ground and putting my arms around his heavy neck I stroked and coaxed him, talking in my newly acquired Martian tongue as I would have to my hound at home, as I would have talked to any other friend among the lower animals. His response to my manifestation of affection was remarkable. He stretched his great mouth to its full width, baring the entire expanse of his upper row of tusks and wrinkling his folds of flesh. If you have ever seen a collie smile you may have some idea of Woola's facial distortion.

There was no further question of authority between us; Woola was my devoted slave from that moment hence, and I, his only and undivided master. My walk to the hills occupied but a few minutes, and I found nothing of particular interest to reward me. But the walk had been large with importance to me, for it had resulted in a perfect understanding with Woola, upon whom Tars Tarkus relied for my safe keeping. I now knew that while theoretically a prisoner I was virtually free, and I hastened to regain the city limits before the detection of Woola could be discovered by his erstwhile masters.

On regaining the plaza I had my third glimpse of the captive girl. She was standing with her guards before the entrance to the audience chamber, and as I approached she gave me one haughty glance and turned her back full upon me. The act was so womanly, so earthly womanly, that though it stung my pride it also warmed my heart with a feeling of companionship. It was good to know that the one slave on Mars beside myself had human instincts of a civilized order, even though the manifestation of them was so painful and mortifying.

MAKING PLACES FOR DIMPLES

Wonderful Effect of Reolo in Filling Out Hollow Cheeks With New Firm Flesh.

Regardless of what and how much you eat, if the nervous system is unstrung and the iron has been burned out of the blood, the long, drawn face and haunted expression will remain. But put Reolo into your blood, let the nerve centers come in contact with it, and then you have started upward. There is one component of Reolo that actually provokes an increase of flesh. In combination with this element there are ingredients that increase red corpuscles, and in a day or two the appetite improves in a way that is a revelation to those who could not hard work to eat, and soon the bluish pallor of the skin is replaced with the pinkish hue of health. You now not only feel well, you look it. Such is the remarkable influence of Reolo in but a few short days. But this is not all. Reolo has intensified the activity of the vital processes to such an extent that the old feeling of exhaustion after effort is completely gone. It is certainly a most comfortable and satisfactory feeling of reassurance, and there is no other condition to be compared to it.

Ask any of the clerks at the Connellsville Drug Co's Store and any other leading drug store about Reolo. They are selling it and recommending it upon the strength of what they see every day, men and women the very picture of health whose cheeks before were hollow and bloodless dependants. Get a $1.00 box of Reolo today and live.—Adv.

Recommended to School Children.

This is the season when children are subject to colds, coughs and croup. Remo C. Marchand, 36 Lawrence St., Salem, Mass., writes: "I used Foley's Honey and Tar with good results. I had a very bad cold and it gave me relief at once, so I recommended it to every child that goes to school." This standard, low priced medicine loosens and clears mucous and phlegm, checks strangling coughing, makes easy breathing, soothes and heals raw, inflamed membranes, and stops tickling in the throat. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Good Advice.

Take Chamberlain's Tablets as soon as you have finished your supper, and they will produce a gentle movement of the bowels on the following morning. They will improve your digestion and make you feel better in every way.—Adv.
